ORDER

Sub: Amnesty Scheme for disposal of the VCRs pending upto 31 st December - 2021.

It is observed that large Nos of VCRs involving theft / misuse nature are pending for their logical conclusion. Therefore, to liquidate such pending VCRs as well as to resolve consumers / non consumers grievances, an Amnesty scheme to settle the vigilance checking reports (VCRs) pending upto 31st December-2021 is hereby introduced w.e.f. 1st April,2022 to 30th September,2022.

The officers of both O&M and vigilance wings shall be responsible for assessment of the pending VCRs (VCRs upto 31.12.2021) where the assessments are pending and shall issue notices upto 25th March, 2022 in the enclosed format to the consumers / non consumers. The Assistant Engineer of the sub-division is authorized to dispose the VCRs by accepting the following amount.

1. If assessment against Civil liabilities / misuse charges of a pending VCR is upto Rs 1,00,000 (One Lac) the concerned Assistant Engineer (O&M) is authorized to dispose of such VCR by accepting 50% of the Civil liabilities / misuse charges and full compounding charges.
2. If assessment against civil liabilities / misuse charges of a pending VCR is more than Rs 1,00,000 (One Lac), concerned Assistant Engineer (O&M) is authorized to dispose of such VCR by accepting 50 % of Rs 1.00 Lac i.e Rs 50,000 (Fifty Thousand) plus 10% of the amount above Rs One Lac of the Civil liabilities / misuse charges and full Compounding charges.
- 3(a) In case of consumers, the final amount so arrived at as above may be accepted in six equal monthly interest free installments.
- (b) In case of non- consumers, the final amount so arrived at as above will be accepted in only one installment.
4. Such cases after closing the VCR i.e. after receiving total amount as calculated above in Point No (1) & (2), shall be reported to APTPS where FIR has been lodged for disposal of FIR.

5. VCRs pertaining to electricity theft cases in which challan has been submitted in the Court against consumers / non- consumers shall not be entertained under this scheme.
6. Court cases wherein the consumer / non- consumer has filed a suit against the VCR and now is willing to avail benefit of the Amnesty Scheme, the consumer / non consumer shall have to withdraw the court case first and thereafter shall be eligible for applying in the Amnesty Scheme. Benefit under the scheme shall be allowed only on production of such documentary proof against withdrawal of the case from the court.
7. The cases already decided but complete amount of assessment is not deposited shall also be considered in the scheme subject to no refund of already deposited amount.

Application under this scheme shall be accepted from 01.04.2022 to 30.09.2022. The sub- divisional officer shall ensure wide publicity of the scheme amongst affected consumers / non- consumers. The concerned officer will send the periodical information in the enclosed format to Addl. SP(Vig), Ajmer positively.
