ORDER

As per provisions of GST Law, GST is leviable on penalty (LD) due to delay in execution of works/supply/services. Consequently, in respect of purchase / work orders issued prior to GST regime, the deposit (hold for LD) lying with the payment authority may not be sufficient to meet out the penalty amount (including GST) at the time of finalisation of penalty. Hence, all procurement authorities may ensure deduction of requisite additional amount towards GST on deposit (hold for LD) from any further claim/ due payment of the firm so that the tax compliances may be ensured.
