Circular

The final bills for deposit works are required to be prepared immediately on completion of the work after ensuring that all related expenditure have been booked and proper accounting in financial statements is done. Applicable GST must also be paid within stipulated period so as to avoid extra burden of penalty and interest on RVPN.

Further, the balance recoverable amount, if any, should be made from the concerned firm. Any delay in preparation of final bill is not in the interest of RVPN.

In view of above, all concerned are advised to ensure that final bills in respect of deposit works are raised immediately on completion of the work and GST is deposited within prescribed time. Any incidence of payment of interest and penalty will be construed as personal liability of the officer/ official in default.
