Rule 9. An employee during transfer from one post to another shall claim travelling allowance as per travelling allowance admissible to the lower of the two posts.

PRINCIPLES OF CALCULATION

Rule 10. For the purpose of calculating mileage allowance, a journey between two places is held to have been performed by the shortest of two or more practicable routes or by cheapest of such routes as may be equally short provided that when there are alternative railway routes and the difference between them in point of time and cost is not great, the mileage allowance shall be calculated on the route actually used.

The shortest route is that by which, the traveler can most speedily reach his destination by the ordinary mode of travelling.

If an employee travels by a route, which is not the shortest but is cheaper than shortest his mileage allowance shall be calculated by the route actually used.

A competent authority may for special reasons, which should be recorded permit mileage allowance to be calculated on a route other than the shortest or cheapest, provided that the journey is actually performed by such route.

Note: For journey on tour the road routes between the places mentioned below shall be treated as the shortest if the journey is actually performed by their own car or in Board vehicle by the employees of category 'A' and 'B'.

Places:

Jaipur & Bundi

Jaipur & Kotah

Ajmer & Kotah

Jaipur & Tonk

(Words substituted vide order No. 492 dated 23.05.2008 (F&R-504)) & ratified vide order No. 787 dated 8.7.08 (F&R-506)

Rule 11. When it is possible to travel between places either by rail or road and the journey is actually made by road then mileage allowance shall be calculated as if the journey has been by rail except where journey has been performed by bus, unless:

- (a) Mileage allowance calculated by road is less expensive than mileage allowance calculated by rail or,
- (b) It is sanctioned by a competent authority who should also state briefly the reasons which rendered it necessary that the journey should be made by road instead of by rail.

Note 1. An employee should specify the means of conveyance for his travelling expenses i.e. should state whether he performed the journey in car supplied by the Board or in a private or by public motor service etc. and should in the case of a journey in his own car, certify if the propulsion charges of the car were borne by him.

(the words “or hired or borrowed motor car” have been deleted vide order No.RVPN/AS(GAD)/F&R/TA/F.(7)/D.2065 Dated 9.11.05 (F&R296)

Note 2. ~~When a journey is made by road and the travelling allowance is calculated as if the journey has been by the rail, Daily Allowance may be claimed under Rule 13 (ii) on the basis of the actual stay of the employee at the place visited by him irrespective of the timings of railway trains. (Deleted vide order No. 492 dated 23.05.2008 (F&R-504)) & ratified vide order No. 787 dated 8.7.08 (F&R-506)~~

Note 3. In case of officers entitled to travel by rail in air conditioned class the mileage allowance by rail for the purpose of this rule includes mileage allowance admissible, in respect of journey by rail in air conditioned class also, if the air conditioned accommodation in train is provided on that route.

Rule 12. Where it is possible to travel between places either by rail or by road or by air and the journey is actually made by the employee, who is authorised to travel by air under Rule 17 by road, in his own car then mileage allowance shall be calculated as if the journey had been by air provided the mileage allowance calculated for air journey is less than mileage allowance calculated by road, and provided further it is certified by the employee concerned that in making this journey by road in his own car, time available for Board's work was not less than what would have been available had the journey been made by air.
