Sub: Call for General Strike on 02.09.2016 by Central Trade Unions
(CTU).

Looking to the possibility of General Strike by Central Trade Unions on 02.09.2016, therefore in order to ensure uninterrupted power supply as well as smooth functioning of all the offices, the following instructions are issued for strict compliance by all the concerned:-

1. No leave of any kind be granted to any officer/employee for the aforesaid date i.e. 02.09.2016.
2. Officers/employees, who are already on leave may be called back on duty, if felt necessary.
3. Adequate protection should be provided to these officers/ employees, who desire to attend office.
4. Attendance should be checked both in the forenoon and afternoon by the controlling officer and those who are not found on duty should be marked "Absent". Similarly, attendance of all employees coming in shift should be checked twice.

Such absence from duty will be treated as break in service and appropriate disciplinary action will be initiated against the defaulters.

5. Names of all those officers/ employees, who found instigating others to participate in the strike or who obstruct others from attending the office/ duty point, shall be immediately intimated to the local administration and Police Authorities, as well as to this office.
