ORDER

Subject : Clarification regarding combined monetary limit in the order dated 17.10.2017

Ref: RVPN/DS(GAD)/F. /17-18/D.624 dated 17/10/2017

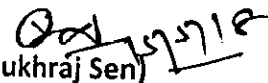

With regards to the order issued vide referred letter, some of the offices have sought clarification on the inclusion of the Annexure-1 in the order and its applicability. Towards this, the following is to be clarified.

The table at annexure-1 of the order as cited above is to be referred only in case of those officers who are entitled for a particular service but are not availing the service. For example, if an officer is entitled for both landline facility at his residence and mobile facility but has not subscribed to the landline service from a telecom service provider, his monetary limit will be reduced by an amount equal to that prescribed for landline facility (as per annexure-1) in his grade.

Category	Grade Pay	Combined Monetary limit for officers entitled for landline and mobile facility	Monetary limit for landline (taken from annexure-1) which is to be deducted (from column 3) if the officer does not avail landline facility	Applicable monetary limit for the officer who avails both mobile and landline facility (same as 3)	Applicable monetary limit of the officer who does not avail landline facility (although is approved for him) and uses only mobile facility (3-4)
1	2	3	4	5	6
A	GP 8200 and above	2200	1200	2200	1000
B	GP 7600 – 8000	1500	800	1500	700
C	GP 6600-7000	1050	500	1050	550
D	GP 5400-6000	800	500	800	300
E	GP upto 4800	700	500	700	200

Thus, for the officer for whom both residential landline facility as well as mobile facility is approved, and he subscribes to both landline and mobile facility, he can claim an amount upto the combined monetary limit (as per column 5) by submitting bills for both landline and mobile facility.

However, if the officer does not subscribe to residential landline facility, he cannot claim the amount as per combined monetary limit based on the bill of mobile facility only. The reimbursement for him will be as per column 6 only.

The reduction will be governed by the monetary limit of the respective facility furnished against each mode of connectivity in Annexure-1
3. The entitlement of officers for different modes of connectivity shall continue to be governed by the existing norms and approval of the competent authority

Additional provisions approved by the Board of Directors, RVPN in respect of individual connectivity.

- (i) No separate entitlement for landline (voice & Broadband) at residence for the officers.
- (ii) The officer shall have the liberty to choose any operator/plan beneficial to him/her in respect of landline and data dongle. In case of mobile facility, to avail the benefit of CUG, the mobile facility shall be procured from service provider on recommendation of the Nodal Officer (as per Annexure-2) in the name of officer / official on his personal I.D. with individual billing.
- (iii) Re-imburement for officers (other than CMD and Directors) will be allowed only for one mode of connectivity of each type provided to the officer individually i.e. (Landline [voice and Broadband]/ mobile/data dongle).
- (iv) The reimbursement shall be allowed as per actual expenditure on monthly basis. The reimbursement (against the applicable monetary limit) of the monthly charges will be allowed on submission of the bill for connectivity subscribed by the officer directly from the service provider. However, there can also be cases where RVPN shall make payment to the Service provider, on behalf of the officer as is the current practice which will continue but the payment made on behalf of the officer shall be counted towards his monetary limit.

AS

- (v) Reimbursement shall not be provided against any hardware (such as mobile device, modem, data dongle etc.) purchased by the officer himself.
- (vi) Re-imbursement will also not be admissible for any value added service availed by the officers from the service providers (other than plain voice and data).
- (vii) The data card provided to the officers individually is de-linked from the Broadband facility extended to the officer at his residence. This will be in supersession to the order issued vide RVPN/AS (GAD)/F. /D.772 jaipur date 22.11.10.
- (viii) The entitlement for landline at residence and mobile to an officer is currently issued on case to case basis as per functional requirement and the orders are issued by the office of Secretary (admin). The same practice shall continue.
- (ix) For data dongle facility to the officers, the entitlement henceforth shall be issued by the office of Secretary (admin) on case to case basis upon receipt of the recommendation from SE (MIS&IT) justifying functional requirement. In cases where the procurement of data dongle for an officer is done by RVPN on the request of the officer in order to avail corporate discounts from service providers, both procurement and issue of the data dongle shall be handled by SE (MIS&IT), RVPN.
- (x) The monetary limit shall be made effective from the month of November, 2017
- (xi) The Chairman & Managing Director, RVPN is also authorized to approve changes in the tariff plans subscribed from service providers for various services from time to time.
