ORDER

Sub: Option for depositing the amount of demand notice with the Bank.

Presently prospective/existing consumers who apply for release of new connections/extension of loads are issued demand notice by the concerned AEn for depositing the estimated cost, security etc. Such applicants are required to deposit the amount of demand notice in cash in the office of the concerned AEn. Instances have been brought to the notice where the amount of Demand Notice of the prospective consumer was not accepted by the office of concerned AEn and as a consequence the applicant was deprived of his priority in release of connection. With a view to curb the recurrence of such happenings, it has been decided to extend the facility to the prospective consumers on the option of consumer at their option to deposit the amount of Demand Notice in the Banks where the account of AEn concerned of Jaipur Discom is existing. Name of Bank Branch and Bank A/C No. of the A.Ens office be indicated in the demand notice.

According to new procedure, the consumer shall have option to deposit the amount of demand notice in the Bank in cash/pay order/demand draft. Such consumer would my

however, be required to submit the counter-foil of the pay-in-slip in the office of AEn concerned in token of having deposited the amount of demand notice in the Bank latest by next day to enable to A.En office to issue A-9 cash receipt. The A.En, however, is required to ensure that the amount of demand notice as deposited by the consumer in the Bank has been credited in the account of the company before release of connection. In such cases, the priority of issue of sundry job order etc, shall be reckoned from the date the amount is deposited by the consumer in the Bank as apparent from the counter-foil of the pay-in-slip/ submission of 'L' form in the A.En office concerned.

This procedure would be applicable for all categories of consumers.
