ORDER

Sub:- Extension in due dates upto 6th June, 2001 of the energy bills for billing month of May, 2001 in respect of SIP, MIP & Large Industrial consumers.

In order to provide relief to those consumers in the Industrial category who had not deposited energy bills for the billing month of May, 2001, it has been decided to extend the due date of said bills by cash/cheque till 6th June, 2001 without levy of LPS/DPS.

However in cases where the Industrial consumer do not deposit the payment of said bill(s) of billing month of May, 2001 till 6th June, 2001 and the mandatory seven days notice under section 24(i) of Indian Electricity Act 1910 had already been issued and served upon them, the connections will be disconnected without giving any further notice. Where such notices were not issued the same may be issued and action taken accordingly.
