ORDER

Sub: Exemption of security deposit from employees of erstwhile RSEB now employees of any one of the five companies formed consequent to unbundling of erstwhile RSEB.

The issue of exemption of security deposit from employees of five successor companies of erstwhile RSEB was placed before the Co-Ordination Committee in its meeting held on 11.7.2002 wherein it was decided that the facility of exemption of security deposit for new electric connections shall continued to be available to the employees of all five companies subject to the following conditions:-

- i) The employee has completed 5 years of service.
- ii) The respective controlling officer of the employee shall issue a certificate about working of the employees and shall give an undertaking/assurance that in case of non payment of electricity dues by the employee the same shall be deducted from his salary and remitted to the concerned Discom.
