ORDER 93

Sub:- Payment of interest on security deposited by other than large industrial consumers.

As per clause No. 22 of the Terms & Conditions for supply of Electricity-2004, interest is to be allowed @6.50% per annum to all categories of consumers through credit adjustment in the electricity bills for billing month of July & August 20 on security deposited by consumers (Security for electricity consumption and meter both) for the year 2019-20. The interest so allowed will be adjusted against Electricity bills issued to the consumers after deducting TDS on the interest amount exceeding Rs. 5000/- as per table mentioned below. Adjustment of interest in consumers' bills will be carried out by the billing agencies for which no advice will be required from the sub-divisions, except corrections if any.

Type/nature of consumers	Rate of tax to be deducted at source
A Where Form 15G or 15H provided or where valid exemption certificate issued by the Income Tax Department have provided by the consumer (As per notification No. 2663 dated 29.09.2015)	NIL
B Domestic company (Registered in India)	7.5% *
C Partnership Firm	7.5% *
D Others (excluding (a) to (c) above)	7.5% *

Note:- If PAN no. is not available then the rate of TDS will be 20%

* Note:- The rate of tax for consumers at (b),(c) & (d) above shall be applicable @7.5% instead of 10% on payment made during the period from 14.05.2020 to 31.03.2021 as per the announcement made by ministry of Finance (Govt of India) on dated 13.05.2020.

Since interest on security deposited by the consumers will be allowed by the billing agencies without any ceiling, figures of interest allowed will be checked and verified by the unit officer in each case, prior to issue of energy bills. Further, a rubber seal will also be affixed in Hindi on each energy bill to be delivered to consumers, intimating them to approach the unit officer concerned in case a variation is noticed in the amount of interest/security, with original cash receipts and photocopies thereof.

Where interest is not allowed by the billing agencies due to non availability of security details, the unit officers will allow interest in such cases after due verification from cash receipts provided by the consumers with available records. Simultaneously, records
