However, for the year 2015-16, out of the total number of posts to be filled by direct recruitment, 50% i.e. 1/12 of the total post will also be filled by promotion as a one time measure. Thereafter, 1/6 of the vacancies in each year shall be filled by Direct Recruitment till DR quota is filled after which posts will be filled on replacement theory.
 - b) 2/3 of the promotion quota vacancies shall be filled in by JEN-I (Degree Holders) on the basis of seniority cum merit, and 1/3 of the total promotion quota vacancies shall be filled in by JEN-II (Diploma Holders) on the basis of seniority cum merit".

Provided that :-

- 1) Difference in the year of recruitment of JEN-I and JEN-II being promoted in a DPC year, is not less than Five (5) years as on the 1st April of the respective DPC year for that category viz. SC, ST, UR. In other words, of every 3 vacancies of AEn, 2 JEN-I and 1 JEN-II may be promoted and this cyclic order may be followed continuously from year to year.
- 2) As and when all JEN-II (Diploma holder) working in a 'Service' viz. E&M & Civil are promoted to the post of AEn., thereafter, all promotion quota posts of AEn of that 'Service', shall be filled from amongst JEN-I (Degree holders) only.
- 3) If a few vacancies worked out for JEN-I or JEN-II remain unfilled in any particular DPC year due to unavailability of eligible & suitable candidates then such unfilled vacancies shall not be carried forward to the next DPC year and may be filled from other group i.e. JEN-II or JEN-I, as the case may be, but such shifting should not be done only due to unavailability of eligible & suitable candidates under any particular one or two categories i.e. UR/SC/ST Category".

The Feeder Managers are to be counted against the Direct Recruitment quota of Assistant Engineers (E&M). The required number of posts of Assistant Engineers (E&M) of Direct Recruitment quota be kept vacant for absorbing the Feeder Managers against the Direct Recruitment quota of Assistant Engineer (E&M), after decision of the Hon'ble Court and approval of the State Government for implementing earlier decision of the Co-ordination Committee.
