No.JdVVNL/CE(CPM)/SE(Comml.)/JU/2005-06/D. 199

Dt. 12/05/05

ORDER

Sub: Amnesty Scheme for realization of outstanding dues from Domestic, Non-Domestic, Agricultural, Industrial consumers,
Govt. department and Local Bodies.

With a view to recover the outstanding dues of the Nigam against various categories of consumers, it has been decided to allow a rebate of 10% or 05% (as the case may be) to the consumers on payment of their outstanding dues as per terms & conditions given below:

Sl.No.	Brief Description	Concession Allowed
01	If the entire/upto date outstanding dues are deposited by the consumer in one go within the scheme period	10% rebate will be allowed on their outstanding dues (including LPS/DPS and interest) as on 30-09-03
02	If 50% of the entire/upto date outstanding dues are deposited by the consumer in one go and the remaining 50% dues are paid within the scheme period	05% rebate will be allowed on their outstanding dues (including LPS/DPS and interest) as on 30-09-2003

1. This Amnesty Scheme will be operative for a period of two months from the date of issue of this order.
2. The benefit of this scheme would be available only if the consumer voluntarily undertakes to withdraw all the court cases pending in any Court of Law/Consumer Forum/any other Forum/MRTP Commission etc. related to the outstanding dues.
3. The scheme shall be applicable to those disconnected consumers also who do not want re-connection as well as to existing consumers.
4. The consumers seeking the benefit under the scheme shall apply to the concerned Assistant Engineer in the format enclosed as Annexure-"A". Concerned AEN would be empowered to allow benefit under the scheme to the consumers of all categories.
5. If consumer fails to deposit the amount as per the agreed time schedule under the scheme, he would not be entitled for any rebate.
6. Outstanding dues shall be worked out without taking into consideration adjustment of existing security deposit. However, the adjustment of security deposit may be made for disconnected consumers and the dues worked out, as on date of disconnection, and from such consumers revised security deposit shall be obtained as per rules before reconnection, if any.
7. The benefit of the scheme would be available including on the amount charged because of theft/malpractice.
8. There would be no restriction to avail benefit of this package on the ground that the consumer has already availed benefit of earlier Amnesty Scheme.

By order
