ORDER

Sub: Extension of time period of "Amnesty Scheme" introduced vide order No. Comml.JDP/563 & Comml.JDP/564.

"Amnesty Scheme" was introduced vide Order No. Comml.JDP/563 Dt. 22.02.12 and Comml.JDP/564 dated 24.02.12 for realization of outstanding dues from all categories of PDC consumers. The scheme was available upto 31.03.2012.

In view of more recovery expected from PDC consumers, the matter for extension of period of the scheme for two month was placed before the Discoms Co-ordination Forum.

The Discoms Co-ordination forum in its 35th meeting allowed to extend the scheme upto 31.05.2012 and also clarified that all the consumers which were disconnected before 31.03.2011 and are lying disconnected at present be covered in the above "Amnesty Scheme" and be allowed the benefit of waiver of the LPS/DPS amount, if they deposit the full electricity dues in one stroke.

It was also decided by the Forum that any domestic consumer covered under the "Amnesty Scheme" desires to get his connection reconnected after depositing full principal amount and reconnection charges as per rules, may be reconnected irrespective of the period of disconnection.

It is enjoined upon all concerned to ensure the strict compliance accordingly.

By order,
