OFFICE ORDER

Sub:- Guidelines for applicability of domestic tariff for energy consumed in residential houses for commercial/ industrial activity by the members of the family.

RERC vide its tariff order dated 24th March, 2001 has prescribed that energy consumed in residential house in which the members of the family conduct any commercial or industrial activity without employing any person shall be charged under domestic category. It has been observed that the field officers are not implementing the order in the right perspective and the self-employed family members in a residential house could not be benefited of said tariff order. The matter has therefore been reviewed and the following guidelines are prescribed for the implementation of the aforesaid portion of the tariff order.

1. The said portion of the RERC tariff order 2001 shall be applicable to the energy consumed in a residential house in which members of the family also conduct any commercial or industrial activity without employing any person. Such energy shall be charged under the domestic tariff. This will also be applicable for the activity conducted by a family member in a portion of such residential houses opening to public roads. The shops in the established market will not be considered under this tariff. The market shall be considered as established if more than 25% of both sides length of the road / street has been covered by the shops opening to either or both sides of the roads/ streets.
2. Ration card, Voter identity card or any other document issued by the Local body/ Gram Panchayat/ Govt. agency will be considered as a proof for the resident family and its members.
3. Connections already converted subsequently to non domestic or industrial category in respect of the consumers or persons for the activity covered under para 1&2 above will now be charged/ converted back to domestic category by the concerned AEn (O&M), Jodhpur DISCOM, on receipt of representation from such eligible consumers/ persons after due physical verification but from the date of receipt of such representation after 1-4-2001 in the office of AEn concerned.
4. The non domestic activity conducted by the family members without employing any person elsewhere other than the house in which such family is residing will not be allowed the benefit of charging the consumption under domestic tariff.

5. The commercial or industrial activity conducted by the members of the family but having connected load requirement more than 2 KW will not be allowed the benefit of charges consumption under domestic category.
6. Consumer found violating the above conditions on subsequent checkings will become non eligible for the benefit of charging consumption under domestic category and would be treated a case of malpractice from the date of original relaxation allowed to him.
