Sub: "Voluntary Disclosure of Connected Load Scheme" for NDS, SIP and MIP Consumers
(vdcl scheme).

In order to facilitate the consumers to avoid levy of penalty under malpractice for unauthorised extension of their connected load an opportunity to the NDS, SIP and MIP consumers is hereby given for declaring their unauthorised extension in load suo-moto by depositing at the rate of Rs.500.00 per KW/KVA (Rs.250.00 as Security Deposit and Rs.250.00 as Transformer Back-up charges) in the concerned office of the Assistant Engineer, Jodhpur Vidyut Vitran Nigam Limited.

The following instructions/guidelines are issued for the field officers and the consumers as well:

- 01) The consumer shall first clear total outstanding dues of the Nigam.
- 02) The consumer shall produce a test report of actual total connected load (Fresh L Form of Licensed electrical Contractor)
- 03) The consumer shall apply in the office of the concerned Assistant Engineer in the prescribed Application/ Requisition Form alongwith a sum of Rs.500.00 per KW/KVA of desired extension in connected load (Rs.250.00 as Security Deposit and Rs.250.00 as Transformer Back-up Charges). To illustrate, if an extension of 05 KW load is required, a sum of $Rs.500 \times 5 = Rs.2,500.00$ should be deposited with the application form.

In respect of above scheme, it is also clarified that if the Contract Demand/Connected Load after extension falls in the category where the transformer is required to be installed necessarily by the consumer to obtain supply at 11KV i.e. in accordance with character of supply defined under Tariff-2001, then apart from depositing Rs.500.00 per KW/KVA, they will have to provide their own transformer and shall also be required to bear the cost of HT extension, if any, as per rules.

The above scheme of "Voluntary Disclosure of Connected Load Scheme"(Vdcls) is valid for the period 1st Nov., 2001 to 30th Nov., 2001. Scheme has already been introduced and was published in Newspapers by the Deptt.of Energy, Govt. of Rajasthan. All such Applications will be entertained which were received during this period.
